LINDENWOOD UNIVERSITY DROPPED IN...

In September the Institute hosted students from Lindenwood University's Professional and School Counseling Graduate Program and their professor, Helen Conway-Jensen. Students from IPC551 Counseling Theory & Practice and IPC552 Counseling Lab Skills received an informational review of the Institute, given by Dean Gail Glenn, MA.Ed; followed by a brief introduction to the Betty Golde Smith Library from Institute Librarian Shelia Heckman. This was a repeat visit for Lindenwood's counseling program and we look to continue piquing their interests and forging future communications.

WHAT ABOUT THE WEBSITE?!

If you have visited our website: www.stlpi.org lately, you may have noticed that the originally scheduled Launch date has passed. But in the fast paced world of technology, these things happen. Luckily this extra time has allowed us to add a greater range of material and a few creative touches we might not have had otherwise. Come January 2008, check back in and let us know what you think.
