

What's NEW at the Institute?

Moneta Group Charitable Foundation announces $3,000 grant to the Institute!

"We are very grateful for the Institute's extremely positive and ongoing relationship with the Moneta Group" stated Sandy Sommer, Institute Treasurer, upon the announcement of Moneta's grant to support the Institute's Child Development Program (CDP). "This grant will help the Institute to make CDP affordable and available to those we entrust with the care of our community's children."

Institute Friends and Prospective Students Are Invited to Sample the Dynamic Curriculum of the Child Development Program (CDP)

A collaborative effort of members of the CDP Coordinating Team, CDP Advisory Committee, past CDP Directors and CDP alumni resulted in a dynamic updating of the program's curriculum. Program Director Van Brokaw noted that over 20 brand new topics were added. Institute friends and prospective students interested in this program are invited to attend one of these new additions before this semester ends: Fairy Tales, Fables, Stories & Fantasies (on 11/17 & 12/01); The Bully Victim & Bystander: Violence Prevention in Children (on 12/08); and Effects of Television, Video Games & Computers (on 12/15). For more information call Leigh Pratter 361-7075 x322.

Calling all Expectant Mothers...

The Institute is beginning a "Mother-Infant Observation" project as a part of the analytic training of our child and adolescent candidates. "This type of observation has been done very successfully in London and Toronto as well as a few Institutes in the US." announces Julio Morales, MD, Director Child Analytic Training Program. He continues, "This will be the first time for this program in St. Louis! It is a wonderful opportunity." Anyone interested in participating should call Dr. Morales at 314-361-7075 x314.
